How to avoid rejection

During the interview, the employer will be evaluating your negative factors as well as your positive attributes. Listed below are negative factors frequently evaluated during interviews – factors that most often lead to rejection!

- Poor personal appearance
- Overbearing, aggressive, conceited behaviour.
- Inability to express thoughts clearly.
- Lack of career planning – no goals, lack of interest and enthusiasm, lack of confidence, nervousness.
- Over-emphasis on money – interested primarily in remuneration.
- Evasive behaviour – don’t make excuses for unfavourable factors in work history.
- Condemnation of previous employers.
