Questions to ask the interviewer & Questions you may be asked

The recruitment process can be a confusing and challenging time. It is important to remember you play an integral part in the equation and it is sensible for you to ask appropriate questions of the interviewer.

Appropriate questions to ask the interviewer

- Why is the position available?
- Is there a detailed position description?
- Anticipated induction and training programme?
- Advanced training programmes for those who demonstrate ability?
- Company growth plans?
- Anticipate timeframe for recruitment process?
- The next step?

Questions to watch for

- Be prepared to answer questions like:
- Why would you like to work for this company?
- What career goals do you have? Where would you like to be in five years time?
- What management style gets the best from you?
- What interests you about our product or service?
- Tell us about a time you were able to use your initiative in your last position?
- What entrepreneurial activities have you been involved in?
- What do you believe determines a person’s progress in a company?
- Can you recall a situation where teamwork was important to achieve success?
